RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Newspaper proprietors generally, and especially of this ity, under the usages and regulations heretofore prevacing are called upon to perform more labor without remuneraare called upon to perform more labor without remunera-tion, than any other class of community. The gratuitous publication of charity and religious advertisement, and com-munications, tributes of respect, oblitaaries, &c. &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, im-poses upon them a burden so operates, that they feel called upon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such calligations a charge to some extract them to see publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the par-ties more muchiately interested. In this they are but fol-lowing the example of the press in other cities, impelled by lowing the example of the press in other cities, imperied by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have therefore, united together in a mutual agreement, upon the following specified terms or the publication of these as well as every sort of regular and finish, of 6,6%, 6%, and 7 octaves, man-
